Item: Implements of Husbandry Permits – Lane Murphy
Discussion:	Discussion on permitting for implements of husbandry exemptions. Regs written for farmers and employees, but dealers and others are increasingly using this exemption for moving large farm equipment from manufacturers to dealers and dealers to sale. These are for-hire movements, not directly farm related. The board was asked for their recommendation on how the division should proceed with enforcement. The decision was that for hire movements should not be exempt, farmers and contract farmers are okay and soft enforcement should be given.
